MEDICINAL.

It is a great affliction for a woman to have her face disfigured by pimples or any form of eruptive disease. It makes her morbid and sensitive, and robs her of social enjoyment. Disfiguring eruptions are caused by impure blood, and are entirely cured by the great blood-purifying medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It removes from the blood the poisonous impurities which cause disease. It perfectly and permanently cures scrofulous sores, eczema, tetter, boils, pimples and other eruptive diseases which are caused by the blood's impurity. It increases the action of the blood-making glands and thus increases the supply of pure rich blood.

"For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 110 West Main Street, Butterfield, Mich. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I read one of your advertisements in a paper, and obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It was a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can now recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one similarly afflicted."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH Nasal

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, reaches over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not dry—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail. Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren Street, New York.

Can't you eat? Others can. Latest improvements in teeth. Our patent suction never falls down. Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

Dr. W. F. HUTCHINSON, Dentist. Corner Prince and Washington Streets, Office Formerly Occupied by Dr. Fawcett.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind, colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

CAGED BRIDAL PAIR.

Nothing delighted George Albert Dimling of Pittsburgh, Pa., so much as a practical joke. He is a son of John Dimling, a millionaire. A wedding within the circle of his friends was good for a solid week's amusement for him. He was married himself on Thursday night last. The bride was Miss Wilhelmina Morgan. When he and his bride were ready to depart for the East Liberty station to take a train to New York, they were seized by their friends and hustled into an express wagon on which was built a wire cage. They were put into the cage and the door was locked. Between 2,000 and 3,000 persons had gathered to see the spectacle, having been drawn to the house by handbills which had been distributed in Mome-wood. They read: "Circus parade will pass along this street this evening, starting at nine o'clock from 7031 Hamilton Avenue. Main feature will be a caged bridal couple. If you want to see the funniest show on earth look out for this one." Of course everybody looked out. First in the parade came a hobo band. Following was a clown on a real spotted pony. Then came the cage containing the bride and bridegroom and after that a trolley coach, on which were the committee in charge. Ten carriages containing the guests fell in at the rear. Four boys were stationed on the cage wagon burning red fire. The horse wore linen pantaloons and a hat that was an artistic creation of the millinery art. The bride and bridegroom were angry but the cage was strong and they could not break out of it. At the station red fire was burned continually and sticks were given to passengers on the train. The bride and groom believed their troubles were ended, but they found more in New York. They went to the Waldorf-Astoria and were scarcely settled in their apartments until express wagons began to deliver all kinds of household utensils, crockpots, dippers, pie pans, and so on, all sent by thoughtful friends from Pittsburgh.

SUICIDE AT A BANQUET.—The body of Alfred Peterson, a Swedish piano maker, is in the morgue at New York as a result of a suicide party given by Peterson in his flat in that city. Peterson had been out of work for some time and his leisure was spent in reading "Quo Vadis." The account of the suicide of Petronius, Nero's favorite, who invited his friends to a banquet and had a slave open his veins while his guests were enjoying their dessert, made a great impression on Peterson. He had decided to die, and he determined to make an event of his suicide. Sophie Sondendraner, Srenia Fraley and Mary Olsen and their best beaux were bidden to the feast, and they made merry about the table for several hours. It was midnight when Peterson arose and said: "I'll give you a toast. Drink heartily to it." When the glasses were filled Peterson jumped up. His wine glass was uplifted in his hand. "Here's to our dear fatherland, to which my spirit will fly. I place this to my head and bid you all good-by." As he spoke he drew a revolver from his pocket, placed it to his temple and pulled the trigger. His last words were drowned by shrieks of horror from his friends. They sprang forward, but were too late. The bullet had plowed its way into his brain, and Peterson dropped dead. On the dresser in his bedroom was found a well-thumbed copy of "Quo Vadis." It was opened and turned down at the passage describing the suicide of Nero's favorite at the banquet table.

THE ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP FIGHT. Some very spicy correspondence has passed between United States District Attorney Edgar Allan and his assistant, Mr. Hugh G. Miller, on the subject of the Norfolk butchers' alleged conspiracy case against the government, which is to be considered by the federal grand jury in November. General Allan went off on a ten days' vacation recently, and a friend of Assistant District Attorney Miller, knowing the feeling between General Allan and Mr. Miller, thought the opportunity a good one "to help Miller along," so gave him the facts which led to the present prosecution of the butchers charged with conspiracy. Mr. Miller, two days after General Allan left Norfolk, hurried to Washington and laid the alleged conspiracy case before the Department of Justice. He was empowered to go ahead with the prosecution and did so. The letters between General Allan and Mr. Miller passed after the General returned from his brief vacation. The latest development is a card from Mr. Miller claiming to have been loyal to the General until he, himself, was attacked, and claiming that the President had personally mentioned the district attorneyship to him, and that he had asked General Allan's resignation, even though he had just been apprised that his own appointment would be more agreeable to the republican organization of Virginia.

DIED IN YOUNG WOMAN'S ARMS.—

Herbert McCannon, a young man who but recently returned from the Philippines, were shot and killed by Postmaster Newton Staugh, at Riverton, Sullivan County, Indiana, Sunday night. McCannon called upon Sadie Staugh, the postmaster's daughter. It is said that when he went to leave the house he demanded the return of a gold watch that he had sent the young woman from the Philippines. While she was gone for the watch the father and McCannon got into an altercation. Staugh claims that McCannon drew a pistol and threatened to kill the entire family. Staugh seized a shotgun and fired at McCannon as his daughter returned. As McCannon staggered toward her the father fired the second barrel, the full charge of shot entering McCannon's head. He fell to the sidewalk. The girl lifted up his head and then, laying him down again, ran into the house and returned with a pillow. As she tried to place his head upon it McCannon died in her arms. The young woman has refused to make any statement of the tragedy, and only the father's side of the story is known. Staugh is quiet and peaceable, and the shooting is supposed to have been justifiable.

SAYS NEGRO WILL DIE OUT.—A sensation has been created in Muscatine, Iowa, by Rev. J. L. Murphy, of the English Lutheran Church, who said in a lecture on the race problem that the study of the sociological condition of the negro today proves that he is deteriorating in this country, will later lapse into barbarism and finally become extinct. He points out that before the war the negro was trustworthy and the honor of any woman of the South was safe without the protection of white men. Today, however, a white woman scarcely dares venture forth alone. Mr. Murphy says that not only is the black man becoming degraded morally in the South, but also physically. Physicians testify that he is more susceptible to disease than a few years ago, and especially in pulmonary troubles. Pneumonia is almost always fatal. The position taken by Mr. Murphy is that in time the progressive class of blacks will tire of the conditions in this country and return to their former African home to teach their fellow-blacks, while those left in this country will then rapidly become extinct.

Old People Have Their Troubles. Mr. Francis Little of Benton Harbor, Mich., is over eighty years of age. Since 1865 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. Last August he began using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and was soon feeling much better. In a recent letter he says, "I have used three boxes of the Tablets and now think I am well." These Tablets improve the appetite and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Natural Anxiety. Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. Its attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquidifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

All who Use Atomizers in treating nasal Catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cts. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, N. Y. New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900.

Messrs. ELY BROS.—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Lamberton, 1415 Delachaise street, New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results. Geo. W. McDuff, Pharmacist.
